Join the FEMA Youth Preparedness Council

This program brings teens together from across the country that are interested and engaged in community preparedness. Council members are selected based on their involvement in extracurricular activities, their leadership experience and any experience related to preparedness and emergency management.

During their two-year term, the youth leaders will complete a local and national-level project and share their ideas regarding youth disaster preparedness with FEMA leadership and national organizations. Applicants must submit a complete application form, provide two letters of recommendation and academic records.

Students in grades 8 -11 are eligible to apply. New council members will be announced in May.
