

Asynchronous (May 15 – June 30, 2021)

Participants are expected to prepare for the synchronous live course delivery from May 15 – June 13, 2021 through online course materials, which may consist of provided readings, articles, or exercises. The course materials will cover foundational aspects of the topics covered during the synchronous live course delivery. Preparation videos (~6 to 9 hours) complement the reading material and make the material more digestible. Participants can skim the reading if they watch the video or skip the video and carefully review the reading.
